POLICEMEN TO THE RESCUE.

Sydney. November 12.

At Bronte Beach yesterday a railway employee named Warrs got into trouble, and was carried outside the breakers.

Several police constables who were out for a swim and were dressing, went to the rescue.

Constable Conley tried to get out, but returned in an exhausted condition.

Then Constable Bebb made an attempt and reached Warrs, whom he got ashore after a hard fight.

Warrs was unconscious, but recovered under treatment.

KING OF ITALY'S APPRECIATION.

ROYAL SHIPWRECK RELIEF SOCIETY'S AWARDS.

The Royal Shipwreck Relief and Humane Society's 35th annual meeting and distribution of awards for acts of bravery will take place at the Sydney Town Hall on the evening of the 26th inst.

The list of those who are to receive either medals or certificates is comprised solely of Australians who have risked their lives in saving others. On this occasion five Australian mariners are to be presented with silver medals from the King of Italy for an act of bravery in rescuing men, women, and children at Messina at the time that, city was destroyed by earthquake. Another Australian is to receive a bronze medal and certificate from Lloyds, London, and a silver medal and certificate from the South Holland lifeboat institution. The acts of bravery performed by the following have been recognised, and each will receive the society's award at the annual meeting.

CONSTABLE CHARLES PERCY LLOYD BEBB.

On November 11, 1911, while bathing in the surf at Bronte a man named Maurice Maher became cramped and perfectly helpless a considerable distance from the beach, and was rapidly being carried further out. He shouted for assistance, and Constable Bebb swam out, partially dressed, with the line, which he lost in the breakers. He, however, swam on and reached Maher, and with the assistance of Constable Conley, who had also swam out, he was safely got to the shore.

Awarded certificate of merit.

DEATH OF SERGEANT BEBB.

Sergeant Charles Percy Bebb, of Waratah Street, Arncliffe, one of the most popular members of the metropolitan police force, died last Sunday at the North Sydney Hospital, aged 48 years.

A week previously he was operated upon for appendicitis, but peritonitis developed and he did, not rally.

Sergeant Bebb was only recently promoted to first-class rank.

As a member of the water police he saved many from drowning and by kindly care and aid prevented many distressed persons taking their lives.

During the deceased's connection with the force he had been associated with nearly every branch of the service.

Starting at George Street North, he later joined the Water Police, and was familiar with every point of the harbour.

Then to the Traffic Branch, where he was well-known in connection with the issue of licenses and vehicle registration.

Back later to the Water Police figuring prominently in many of the unfortunate bridge tragedies.

Still, later as officer to Redfern division, and latterly to St. George as licensing officer.

At the time of his sudden illness he was on special duty at North Sydney.

The deceased, who is survived by a wife and two daughters, was Vice-President of St. David's Church of England Men's Society, Arncliffe, and also treasurer, synodsman, and parish Councillor of the church.

He was also a member of the I.O.O.F. Lodge.

The funeral services at St. David's, Church, Arncliffe, and at the Woronora Crematorium, on Tuesday, were largely attended.

Inspector (George Gilbert) Fergusson (# 'Q' 8769) represented the Commissioner of Police, and Inspector (Henry) Chinner (# 'Q' 7932) the metropolitan superintendent.

The police band and 80 policemen in uniform were present.

Inspector Jones, of Kogarah, was in charge of arrangements, and was assisted by Sergeant Redding.

The large gathering present included many ex-policemen and colleagues and friends.

The services were conducted by the Rector, Rev. Pitt-Owen, assisted by the Rev, W. J. Siddens.

The chief mourners were Mrs. M. Bebb (wife), and two daughters, Mr. J. Harold Bebb (brother), and Mrs. Bebb, Mrs. S. R. White (mother), Mr. and Mrs. Hendren (sister) of Lithgow, Mr. John Bebb, Mr. S. R. White, Mr. A. Wray, Mr. H.

H. Youngman (uncles), and their wives.

These postcards came from old albums owned by Charles Percy Lloyd Bebb (known as Percy) and Maggie Gardner.

Percy was born in 1886 to parents Joel and Esther (nee Harrold); Maggie was born in 1888 to John and Sarah (nee Isaac).

Their families lived in Glebe; they both attended St John's Church there.

Both were given their albums by their parents – Percy on his 20th birthday in 1886.

The cards date from the beginning of their friendship in 1904, continue through their courtship until their marriage in 1909; after that, they are mostly Greeting types for birthday and Christmas.

They follow Percy's path from Glebe Fire Brigade to CSR at Broadwater Richmond River and finally to NSW Police Force.

Mostly these cards date from 1904 to around 1910. A lot are between Maggie and Percy – in their courtship they seem to have written very frequently. A lot of the messages are concerned with their own and the other's health – perhaps there was nothing else to write about. Or fishing; both families seemed to be very keen fishing people.

Unfortunately a lot of these cards are age spotted from being stored in the old albums with porous green paper; or damaged through posting or handling.

While I have discarded the worst ones, some that otherwise seem historic or attractive I have retained, hoping they will still be appealing to someone. So please let the photos be your guide as to description. Always happy to combine.

NSWPF No 8794, Charles Percy Lloyd Bebb joined the NSW Police Force 7 March 1908. He had achieved the rank of Sergeant when he died 21 October 1934.

Constable Charles Percy Lloyd Bebb was awarded a Certificate of Merit by the Royal Humane Society of NSW for actions involving a drowning rescue at Bronte on the 11th November 1911.

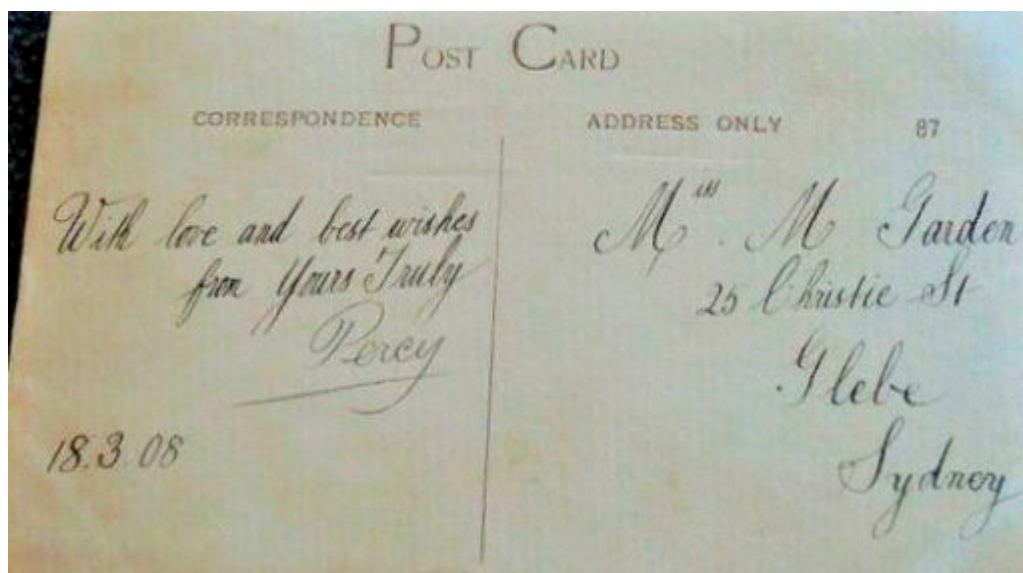

From a newspaper report of 25 April 1932 he is mentioned as trying to revive a man who had jumped from the Sydney Harbour Bridge. Unfortunately he was already dead when his body was retrieved from the water.

He was probably stationed first at NSW Mounted Police Barracks Bourke St Redfern, then at Central Police Barracks Liverpool St, and later was stationed at Newcastle and West Maitland (1917).

One shows the front façade of the Police Barracks, the other has several small vignettes showing Mounted Police on horseback, undergoing training, in formation etc. One is dated 18.3.08. As Percy only joined the Police Force 7 March 1908, it is possible this was his first posting. Both photos are faded.

SERGEANT DANIEL BERNARD MARKHAM.

The death took place at Sydney, on the 19th ult., of Sergeant Daniel Bernard Markham, who was attached to No. 4 Division of the New South Wales Police Force. Mr. Markham, who was only 48 years of age, was one of the most popular and efficient members of the Force. He had been in ill-health for some time, but bravely performed his duties despite his illness.

Being 6 feet 2 inches in height, of magnificent physique, and possessed of a bright and genial disposition he was a popular figure with his comrades and the general public.

Mr. Markham was a devout Catholic and a member of the A.H.C. Guild at St. Brigid's, Marrickville. His numerous acts of kindness towards the poor and needy brought him numerous friends wherever he went.

Joining the N.S.W. Police Force in 1907, Mr. Markham was attached to North Sydney Division for some time. He later was transferred to the Traffic Department, and afterwards to No. 4 Division, where he continued to perform traffic duty for many years.

He was a popular figure along the water front, where he handled the heavy traffic with tact and courtesy. As a result Mr. Markham was promoted to the rank of first-class constable, and later to the rank of sergeant. It is safe to say that no promotion was more popular or so well deserved.

From the formation of the Police Association Mr. Markham was president of No. 4 Branch, from 1920 to 1925. The popularity of that branch was to a great extent, due to his personality. He was transferred to Clarence-street Division, where he performed varied duties, and finally was Assistant-traffic Sergeant of that very busy and important portion of Sydney. In January, 1933, Sergeant Markham was sent back to his old Division (No. 4) as Sergeant in charge of traffic there. It was during this latter period that he was stricken with a serious illness. It was hoped that he had recovered, but, to the extreme grief of his devoted wife and young family, death took place as already stated.

Mr. Markham was a native of New South Wales, and a member of a large family, all of whom are devoted members of the Catholic Church.

A Requiem Mass was celebrated at St. Brigid's Church, Marrickville, on the 22nd 'ult. The cortege leaving the church proceeded to the Sergeant's late residence at Carey-street, Marrickville. A police funeral was accorded deceased.

Superintendent Lynch (representing the Commissioner of Police). Inspectors Winter, Collings, and Stanton, and a large squad of uniform and plain-clothes police under Sergeant Rodding, were in attendance.

Beautiful and solemn music was rendered by the Police Band as the sad procession wended its way to Woronora Cemetery. Thousands of people watched the sad procession. The burial took place in the Catholic portion of the cemetery, in the presence of a large number of his old comrades and many prominent citizens.

The last prayers were recited by the Rev. Father Lloyd (Cronulla), who afterwards paid a tribute to the Sergeant's sterling qualities.

The chief mourners were Mrs. Markham (widow), Master George Markham (son), Misses Dorothy and Joan Markham (daughters), and James, Thomas, Frank, and Vaughan Markham (brothers), Misses Margaret and May Markham, and Mrs. A. Swanson and Mrs. F. Bullivant (sisters).
