MEETING WITH SUPERINTENDENT KEN DREW, CHIEF OF STAFF TO THE NEW SOUTH WALES POLICE COMMISSIONER

At 2.30 on 16th of July, 1986 I met with Superintendent Drew at the 20th Floor of the Police Headquarters Building in College Street, Sydney. Also present were Patricia Sharp, Sergeant R Clarke of the Licensing Squad and Detective Sergeant R Lynch of the Braking Squad.

I briefly outlined our function and said that we were seeking the co-operation of the NSW Police in relation to a number of allegations that had been made in relation to His Honour Mr Justice Murphy. We discussed briefly various provisions of our act.

As an opening gambit I suggest that the NSW Police Force must have collected a considerable body of intelligence on Abraham Saffron over the years. I asked whether any link between Saffron and His Honour had been uncovered at any time by the NSW Police. Superintendent Drew said that apart from what James McCartney Anderson had told Sergeant Warren Molloy (as to which see later) no link between Saffron and His Honour had come to light. That was confirmed by Detective Sergeant Clarke who from the early 1980's has been the Officer in Charge of the general licensing in the Kings Cross region; and by Detective Sergeant Lynch, who has been responsible for investigating the activities of Todor ('the Torch') Maximovich over the last few years. Sergeant Clarke said that Warren Molloy had a far more detailed knowledge of Saffron's operations because of his position as Special Licensing Sergeant in the Kings Cross region up until the time of the Bill Allen affair. Both Clarke and Molloy had at various times closed down The Venus Room, and Molloy is alleged to have a very detailed knowledge of the ins and outs so to speak of that establishment. Moreover, Molloy has been James McCartney Anderson entertaining in recent times. Apparently Anderson thinks that Molloy is a "good bloke" and is supposed to be singing like a canary to him. Molloy is overseas until the 29th of July. Superintendent Drew is to arrange for us to meet Molloy as soon as possible after his return. He is also to arrange for us to see the people in charge of the Vice and Drug Squads in the late 70's early 80's. We were told that the Former Head of the Vice Squad, Ernie ('the good') Shepherd, may be able to tell us something about suggestions that Saffron procured females for His Honour. We were also told that the Vice Squad has been conducting a rather lengthy investigation into allegations that Phillipino girls were imported under some racket involving Morgan Ryan to work as prostitutes in The Venus Room. Details of that investigation are to be made available to us.

I then thought I would stir up the waters a bit by asking whether it had ever been explained of why when the NSW Police were busily tapping a fairly large number of known or suspected criminals in Sydney noone bothered to tape Abe Saffron's phone. There was an outbreak of mumbling by the police in the room at that juncture and I get the distinct impression that something very suspicious occurred at senior levels within the NSW Police Force to prevent such a tap being placed on Saffron's phone.

Τ then mentioned the statements by Egge to the Stewart Commission in relation to Luna Park and Central Railway, and the fact that very few of the other police examined by Stewart had been asked about those allegations. I gave him the attachment from the recent Stewart letter which listed all of the NSW Police Officers who'd worked for the BCI/TSU and asked Superintendent Drew to obtain for me the present location of each person listed therein. Superintendent Drew said he would do this (he complained of the logistics involved). He mentioned that the Police Commissioner had instructed police generally not to give evidence to other agencies without first being cleared by him. Superintendent Drew is to arrange clearance by the Police Commissioner. In any case, until that clearance is forthcoming, Superintendent Drew felt that none of the police would speak to us given that that instruction that is about not speaking to outsiders had been drummed into them. I also asked Superintendent Drew to obtain, or at least locate, all of the diaries and notebooks of all of the people mentioned in that list for the relevant periods. He felt that those diaries may be with the National Crime Authority, but undertook to make enquiries. I specifically asked for the present location of and Drew mentioned that he understood that boat has recently been destroyed in a mysterious fire and he was not sure where he was presently hanging out.

I then said that with all of the information that was being gathered by the TSU/BCI there must have been some form of intelligence record created for each piece of information thus That is I felt it was an available inference that received. files would of been created within the BCI on His Honour if His Honour had been mentioned in any information gathered by the BCI/TSU. I asked Superintendent Drew to make inquiries to ascertain whether any such records exist and if so to obtain He felt that if any records had existed that they would same. have been destroyed. However he undertook to make the inquiries.

then mentioned the evidence of Egge before the Stewart T Commission concerning the Milton Morris allegation. In particular I mentioned Egge's statement that following the interception of a telephone conversation between His Honour and Morgan Ryan, wherein it was suggested that His Honour had set up a meeting between Morgan Ryan and Milton Morris on the steps of Parliament House, the BCI/TSU had staked out the steps to observe said meeting. I asked for all of the records of the BCI/TSU relevant to any such inquiry. I asked whether any stakeout might have been done by the Observation Squad, the BCI itself, or some other organisation and asked that all relevant records be checked. Superintendent Drew undertook to make those inquiries.

I also asked for all of the running sheets of the BCI/TSU for the period 1978 to 82 at least. Superintendent Drew believed that these had been destroyed by Mr Blisset in the early 1980's following the disclosure about the existence of The Age tapes. However he undertook to make inquiries to see whether any of the I then turned to the matters running sheets still existed. disclosed in the second chapter of the second volume of the I asked whether any investigation Stewart Commission Report. had been carried out into any of the allegations raised by Stewart. Superintendent Drew told me that a Task Force had been established to thoroughly investigate all of the allegations. is headed by Detective Superintendent That Task Force Stephenson. Its establishment was delayed by Justice Stewart in handing over the relevant information, but now appears to be in All of the Stewart information is being fed into full swing. computer and Ι understand that police have begun their induiries. Highest priority is the Cessna Milner Matter. Also high on the list is the alleged involvement of His Honour, Ryan, Saffron, the Yuens, and police in the Dixon Street Casinos It will also appear that some further investigation has matter. been conducted into the Lowe and Shaw attempt to influence Lewington. Superintendent Drew indicated that nothing had come of this investigation. Superintendent Drew then introduced me to Detective Superintendent Stephenson and told Superintendent Stephenson that he was to co-operate fully with our inquiry. Ι understand from what Superintendent Drew told me that this Commission will have full access to the ongoing investigations by the NSW Police into the various allegations raised by Justice I intend meeting with Superintendent Stephenson at Stewart. some date in the not too distant future, when the NSW Police inquiries have achieved some headway.

Finally, I mentioned the Morosi break-in in February 1975. After briefly outlining the charges brought (namely larceny and illegal use of motor vehicle) Superintendent Drew expressed his disbelief that such charges would have been laid in those circumstances - invariably, no matter what the amount involved, charges of break enter with intent are brought; moreover the charge under the Motor Traffic Act is "part of ancient history". I asked Superintendent Drew to make inquiries to find out whether the break-in was ever reported to the NSW Police and if so, I asked him to obtain any of the files and papers that may still exist within the Police Archives relevant to that matter.

Superintendent Drew is to get back to me in the next couple of weeks in relation to all of these matters and in particular, to set up the meeting with Molloy and the other people previously mentioned.

The Commissioner New South Wales Police Force 14 College Street SYDNEY NSW 2000

Attention: Superintendent K. Drew

Dear Commissioner,

I refer to my telephone conversation today with Superintendent Drew. As I outlined in that call, this Commission is required to inquire and advise the Commonwealth Parliament whether any conduct of the Honourable Mr Justice Murphy has been such as to amount, in its opinion, to proved misbehaviour within the meaning of Section 72 of the Constitution. The Commission's investigations are at large, in the sense that no specific matters have been referred to it by Parliament for investigation.

In these circumstances, I have been instructed that it is possible that the New South Wales Police may have information which would bear significantly on the inquiries conducted by this Commission. In particular it has been suggested to me that investigations undertaken by a team led by Detective Inspector W Molloy, a second team led by Detective Sergeant R Clark of the Licensing Squad and a third team led by Detective Sergeant R Lynch of the Arson Squad may be relevant to the Commission's inquiry.

I would be most grateful for any assistance that your officers could provide. I should add that the Commission is required to report by the 30th September 1986 and our inquiries must therefore be pursued at the earliest possible time.

Yours faithfully

Stephen Charles 12 June 1986
